ALTSEAN-Burma

Founded in 1996, ALTSEAN-BURMA (Alternative ASEAN Network on Burma) is a network of organizations and individuals based in ASEAN member states working towards strengthening human rights and democracy in Southeast Asia, with a specific focus on Burma/Myanmar. Operating from Bangkok, Thailand, the network is comprised of human rights and social justice NGOs, think tanks, academics, journalists, and student activists. The organization's activities encompass advocacy, capacity-building, and other strategic interventions focused on atrocity prevention, business and human rights, and women's rights.

ALTSEAN-BURMA is an active member of FIDH, ESCR-Net, AWID, APRRN and I4C.

Blood Money Campaign

The Blood Money Campaign was initiated and designed by activists and union leaders on the ground in Myanmar. The BMC team is comprised of activists with different backgrounds - labor and student unions, civic engagement, peace and education activists, youth, people with disabilities as well as people in research, IT and design. The BMC is focused on corporate accountability for human rights violations committed by Myanmar's illegal junta.
